

Sonic Weld Application Aids

6" slide support that increases the available load space between the horn and part. Actuator is mounted to the slide support and is moved up or down by an air cylinder that is controlled by the end user pr welder. Slide support is equipped with 2 flow-regulated fittings to control movement speed, and 2 sensors to monitor up and down position.

Actuator Stroke Extender

